

The Illinois Art Therapy Association 27th Annual Conference
Creative Vision: Emerging Genres in Art Therapy

Presentation: Healing Dreamscapes: Therapeutic Photomontage
Presenter: Nancy Gershman, digital artist (Art For Your Sake)
Attendee Comments/ January 20, 2007

"It was interesting to look at healing processes from an artist's viewpoint rather than a therapist's view."

"I have wanted more information regarding photography and digital imagery in art therapy. I am very happy with this presentation that gives a new idea and application. Thank you."

"Nancy seemed thoughtful and careful about her process..."

"A great learning experience."

"A great presentation."
