Dear Nancy:

I wanted to take this opportunity to thank you again for your wonderfully creative program, "Life Changing Heirlooms" that you shared with us for our opening Sisterhood event this year. The spectacular transformation of the photos, the "dreamscape" as you call it, is a unique venue to honor a loved one, a relationship, or as a means to heal. The ability to even re-play a period of your life as you may have wanted it to be, such as the little boy who was one of several children sitting in the car alone with his parents, resonates to those who have often wondered what a situation would feel like that did not happen. It can be cathartic and healing, as well as comforting, to have a tangible "dreamscape" to hold onto.

The message that you send in offering these opportunities to "dream" from our own photos and life stories was very well received with our members. The stories you shared, though they were individual, were easy to relate to. The audience was engaged and captivated by the possibilities and I am hopeful will come to use you to develop their own "dreamscapes" in the future. Regardless, the afternoon was enlightening, stimulating and left us with another respect for creativity.

Thank you again for your time and talent.
